

Save on your personal purchases.

Welcome to the Staples Jayhawk Community Partnership Purchase Program! The University of Kansas receives low negotiated pricing with Staples, and you can too! By registering for an individual account using your personal email address, you'll have access to the things you and your family need at the University of Kansas pricing!

Here's 5 reasons to get signed up:

- You receive the University of Kansas pricing on hundreds of items
- Market-based pricing (we check every day!) on everything else - no more shopping around!
- Use it for your school & office essentials, furniture, technology products, snacks, coffee and more
- Fast, free delivery (next day in most cases) with no minimum order amount
- No-hassle online returns

- It takes approximately 3 to 5 business days to activate your registration, and you'll receive a confirmation email from Staples to let you know when activation is complete.
- If you don't see the email within this time frame, be sure to check your "Other" tab or "Junk Email" folder.
- Order directly from StaplesAdvantage.com with your personal credit card, and your order will ship or be delivered right to your home.
